THE SALES PROCESS

SHOWING APPOINTMENTS

One of the most important aspects of selling your home is allowing potential buyers to view it. As simple a task as this may seem, there are many things a seller can do to turn off these potential buyers. If at all possible, try not to be present when there are buyers viewing your home. It helps them feel more relaxed and they are better able to take in all of the surroundings. If you must be at home, keep conversation to a minimum and let their agent take them around.

SKILLFULL NEGOTIATION

When offers are presented, we will advise and help you obtain the best possible price and terms. Understanding the various contract forms and vast array of contractual issues is key to negotiating the best terms to meet your individual needs.

TRANSACTION MANAGEMENT

In addition to the marketing, staging and pricing of the home, there are many more details that go into the transaction before the sale becomes final. At Ewing & Associates Sotheby's International Realty, we pride ourselves on operating a full-service real estate brokerage.

Each office is independently owned and operated.
